- Updates to the Library Renovation and Site Improvement Project include:
 - McCarthy & Smith will be submitting their twelfth and final monthly Cost Control Book Report on June 16. The current estimated amount is approximately $30,000. The Library Board meeting packet will be updated to include the summary once it is received.
 - The fully accessible gender neutral restroom is complete and open to the public.
 - Lights have been installed on the roadside sign. They come on automatically with the parking lot lights once it gets dark.
 - Public use of the program rooms is once again available. Study Room #1 is currently usable as a first come, first served study room like the others. When our new table and chairs for the Adult area arrives (no date yet), we will have a larger conference area in Study Room #1, so it will also be able to be reserved online for smaller group meetings like the program rooms.
 - Howlett Lock & Door will be on-site June 19 to update locks throughout the library.
 - Pin lettering signage arrived but needed to be tweaked. It should be installed soon.
 - The final landscaping work and pavilion lighting should be complete soon as well.
- Summer Reading is off to a great start, with over 1300 participants of all ages already registered in the first week. The David Zinn chalk art workshop co-sponsored by the Saline Arts & Culture Committee on June 8 to kick off the "Color Our World" theme was a great success. With such a colorful theme, we couldn't resist doing two community art projects this year! Community members of all ages can create hot air balloons and/or puzzle pieces for display in the library later this summer.

- This year's Great Summer Read is My Friends by Fredrik Backman (the author of A Man Called Ove). Adults and teens are welcome to read the book and answer weekly trivia questions about it on the Summer Reading Readsquared site to qualify for prizes.
- Upcoming SDL programs of note include Kevin Devine Family Music Program, Family Fun Storytime at Curtiss Park, and Family Movie Night for kids, a Cooking Class with Chef Val, the new Loose Leaves: A Book Club for Gardeners, and Color Our World with Henna for adults, and Juneteenth programming for kids as well as adults and teens
- Updates from the June 13 Michigan Public Library Director meeting:
 - The Library of Michigan will be receiving their full LSTA funding from IMLS this year.
 - The current draft of the Federal budget cuts the IMLS budget from $313 million to $6 million in order to close the agency. However, Karren Reish of LM explained that this would impact Michigan for FY2026-2027; IMLS funding is secure through September 30, 2026.
 - The current drafts of the Michigan budget hold State Aid for libraries at the current amount.
 - Libraries should be receiving our second State Aid checks in July and our penal fine checks from the counties in August.
- The library will be closed Friday, July 4 for Independence Day.
- I will be on vacation June 28-July 7. Jessica Lash will be in charge of the library while I am away.
- Recent comments from patrons include:
 - "You have so many wonderful programs for the youth."
 - "You are all the best!"
 - A couple of recommendations for a vending machine in the lobby.
